Rude

As we, the Seniors, leave these halls and school days behind us, we venture into a new life. Everything will be a new experience. We will then be continuing or striving to reach our goals that we made in high school. We will always have memories of our school days and the days ahead will be a challenge.

As The Pages Turn... The Year Goes By.....

EDITOR Dianna Gross
ASSOCIATE EDITOR Jean Freeman
BUSINESS MANAGER Phyllis Goodyear
ADVISOR Mrs. Gorsuch

We dedicate this volume of the Citadel to the young men and women who are leaving the halls of their school as students for the last time. We wish them the best of luck in their future. May they strive to accomplish new and better things as they grow into adulthood, from this day forward.

Students seem eager to start a new day . . .

But even more eager to finish it!

"30 Minutes In A Street"

We Will Remember Our School Play

Miss Studebaker

This year, under the direction of Miss Studebaker, we were introduced to a theater-in-the-round, which was something new and interesting. This staging made it easier to hear the actors in the three one-act plays because the stage was completely surrounded by the audience. We would like to commend Miss Studebaker for her efforts and all the people who helped make the plays a success.

SENIORS

In this past year at Huntertown High School quite a few Seniors have suddenly realized that they must really start deciding "what comes next". After this year we will no longer be coming back to the protective walls of our alma mater. Some of us realized too late we should have tried harder. Some of us will go on to college, others will go directly into a job. Our school also has realized a need, and it has opened the door wider for students to obtain scholarships. We have also matured in our thinking, because we know we must so that our parents and our school will be proud of us.

Our Senior class has had many activities this year. Among these was a Senior Dinner held at the Golden Dragon which was, in a way, our final all-Senior get together. The Junior-Senior Prom was quite an event to remember. A yearbook was purchased for each member of the graduating class as a symbol of our last year together. It will also help us remember one another and some of our good times, not only this year but in years gone by.

Huntertown May Repeat As ACAC Net Champion

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of articles about the prospects of high school basketball.)

By Jim

Huntertown High School's basketball team won 20 games last season, as well as the county Athletic Conference championship. Missing this season at fine ball club is only one player, Bob B'anchard, a center who helped at Ball State. His absence but hurt the Wildcats, even so, they are expected to be in the class of the county.

As George Cherry starts his fourth season as head coach at Huntertown, he looks for another year just about like last season.

"It takes breaks," Cherry said recently. "We get our share there is no reason why we can't match that record."

"That's a pretty big order, but don't bet Cherry's club won't fill it. It has speed, size, experience, defensive ability and an abundance of good shooters. What more does a basketball team need?"

Cherry, a graduate of Butler University, added, "The boys have grown up a bit since last season and they played basketball all Summer long. That spirit is great, in fact my problem now is keeping the boys in check until the season opens on Nov. 6. I've never coached a team which was this far advanced at this stage of practice."

A tip on Huntertown's prospects can be found in the records of the Wildcat B and C teams of last season. The B team won three games all season, the C team five, all in the county tournament.

Though it's hard to tell, Cherry looks for a fight and Ned Miller, a senior, is looking forward to a fight with Al Roth. Miller a shot at Roth's bright broke starting line-up one leg. Victory over Fort Wayne Central was 38-10.

Attendance at the championship game was 3,587. The Bulldogs, Allen County, won the championship against Hoagland. The Wildcats won the county championship against Hoagland. The Wildcats won the county championship against Hoagland.

ason, scoring 130 points. Miller, a reserve, found time to score.

Backing up this duo will be Bill Phillips and Bob Shank. Phillips is a 6-3½ sophomore and played freshman ball and a bit of reserve last season. Shank has some varsity experience and may also see action at guard for the 'Cats.

Bill Garman, a 6-1 senior, will probably get the call at center. Albright can also help in this department if Cherry has an additional size is needed. Garman hit 10 field goals and 10 free throws last season and Cherry has several nights like that.

Cats' Roster

Bockman, c	6-1	Sr.
McDougall, g	5-10	Jr.
Gloyd, f	5-10	Jr.
Dove, g	5-9	Jr.

Shank will no doubt help in the guard work and Cherry is also counting on two boys moved up from the reserves, Mike McDougall and Dwayne Dove. Both seniors, they will be inserted whenever possible. McDougall is a good outside shooter.

Louie Alday is the other who is the first time. He's a big kid and says he's still remaining for the championship. He's a big kid and says he's still remaining for the championship.

the 'Cat cause is John Bockman, a brother of "Bevo" who played for the Huntertown five a couple of years back. Only a sophomore, John already towers to the 6-foot mark.

Could Average 6-2

Should Cherry ever decide to start Albright and Phillips at forwards, Bockman at center, Gross and Shank at the guard, the Wildcats would average 6-2. That's bad in any high school league.

Huntertown will play exactly the same schedule as last season, though a few of the dates have been changed. The Wildcats will play in one of only two home games scheduled all season. Only their first six games will be ACAC contest, giving them a chance to do some experience before getting involved in conference warfare too extensively.

The schedule:

Nov. 6 — South Whitley; Nov. 10—Monroeville at Leo; Nov. 14—at Avilla; Nov. 20—at Rome City; Nov. 25—at Chubbuck; Dec. 5—at Albion; Dec. 12—Hoagland at Leo; Dec. 18—Avilla; Dec. 21—at Elmhurst; Jan. 4—at Avilla; Jan. 11—at Elmhurst; Jan. 18—at Avilla; Jan. 25—at Elmhurst; Feb. 1—at Avilla; Feb. 8—at Elmhurst; Feb. 15—at Avilla; Feb. 22—at Elmhurst; Mar. 1—at Avilla; Mar. 8—at Elmhurst; Mar. 15—at Avilla; Mar. 22—at Elmhurst; Mar. 29—at Avilla; Apr. 5—at Elmhurst; Apr. 12—at Avilla; Apr. 19—at Elmhurst; Apr. 26—at Avilla; May 3—at Elmhurst; May 10—at Avilla; May 17—at Elmhurst; May 24—at Avilla; May 31—at Elmhurst.

In 4 Teams Tonight

The county basketball tem will pick up tonight with four games scheduled. Three will be seeing action for the first time this season. The Badgers dropped to be one of Allen County's best. The Wildcats will be the only other county school playing at home tonight. Coach D. A. Gross, who was the head of the Wildcats' comeback, wound up with 10 of 17 from the field and three of four from the foul line. McLean also got into double figures for the Trojans with 11.

But Misses Final Shot away, with victory only seconds like glue. Finally, the Trojans' defense stuck and missed. Phil Elmhurst ran out the clock with a step and the Wildcats actually started its comeback with just about six minutes to give Elmhurst guard, cashed a shot — its biggest scoring honors to the Trojans, pum drive-in. The Co-Captains, Ross Gross and Gay Martin, did a good job of leading the Cats through victories.

Managers of this year's basketball team are: David Freck, Dean Gongaware, Robert Konger, Mike Freck, Jack Freeland.

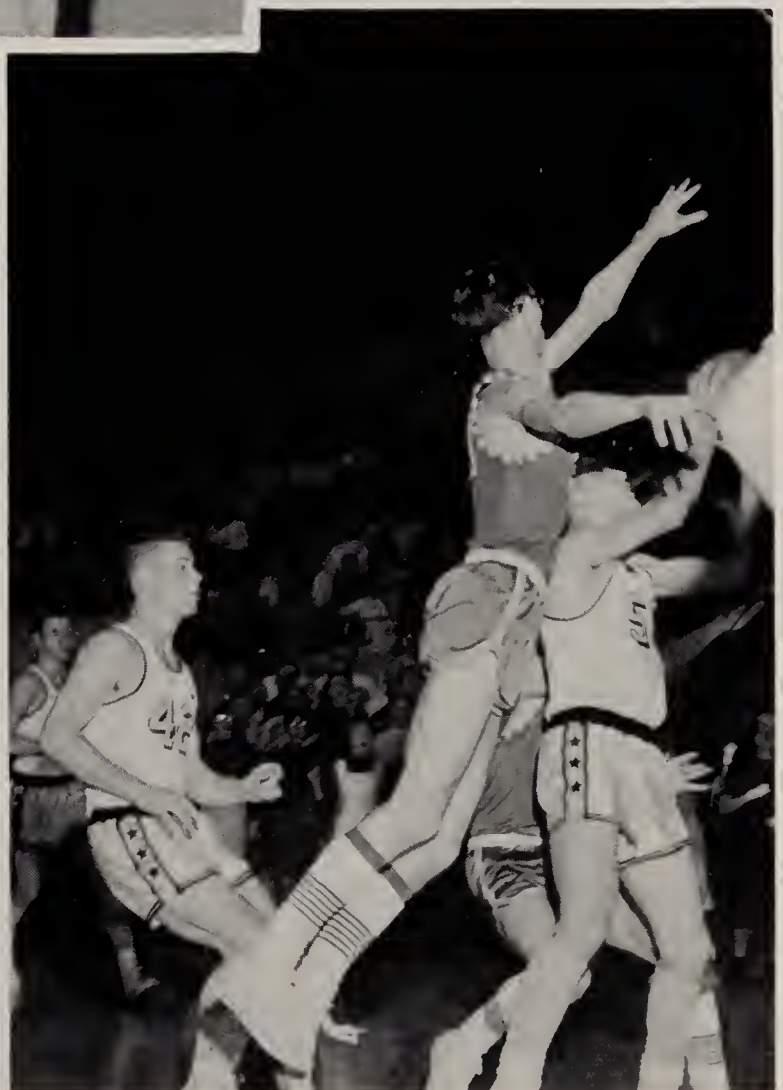

What do you see up there, Bill?

The Most Valuable Basketball Player Award was enlarged this year so that two of our Wildcats could be honored. Gay Martin, one of the leading scorers, often added two valuable points at a crucial moment with his outside jump shot. A very hard-working player, Ned Miller, just never quit. He continued to be a leading scorer throughout the tournaments and was named to the sectional first team.

Come on Ned, those two points are needed!

A note played each day, makes the band members gay!

One of the important things in giving a school a fine name, comes with the extra activity included in the program as well as the students and subject matter.

Ranked high on the list comes the band, a definite asset to our school. It has displayed fine showings at parades, ball games, and contests. It has provided for entertainment at school and at concerts.

Yes, we can be very proud to say, "This is our band."

These Junior High Students are training to be better Senior High Choir members.

Our peppy varsity cheerleaders led the team to many victories. They are, left to right: Rebecca Russell, Kay Cook, Dottie Englehart, and Roberta Russell.

The reserve cheerleaders did an outstanding job. They are Gail Thompson and Jeanette Campbell.

The Freshman Class can be proud of their cheerleaders, Anita DeVeny and Emily Davito.

The Pep Club was the backbone of our cheering section, and made an impressive showing at each game. The officers, Faye Buckmaster, Barbara Russell, and Blix Ann Siepert worked hard to organize this group, and they must be praised for a job well done.

Although there was a late start this year, the choral speaking group did get organized this year. In spite of this delay, however, they got right down to work and made the most of their time. Much fun along with much work was acquired during their weekly meetings.

This group, under the direction of Miss Studebaker, is truly an asset to our school and its program.

These are our office help: Leroy DeWitt, Jim Shookman, June Roller, Janice Black, Jean Demske, Faye Buckmaster, Karen Sherwood.

These hands help care for the many books on our library shelves. The librarians for this year were: Gayle Fleming, Sandy Grossman, Charles Disbrow, Larry Shepherd, Florence Alday, Linda Olson, Joseph Clark, Ruth DeHaby, Miss Enley, Tom Royer, Don Lindley, Sue Franklin, Raymond Till, Diane Aukerman, Joyce Kelshiemer, and Paulene Plummer.

Under the watchful eye of this statue, our library continues to operate.

The Student Council sponsored the Ping Pong Tourney this year and they did a fine job. The winners of the Huntertown games competed in the County Tourney at Lafayette Central and Penny Noble, a senior, brought home the Championship trophy for the girls' singles.

Noon hour brings the students relief from the lingering hours in class.

With graduation drawing nearer, Jac and Ned feel they have been "penned up" too long.

These trophies bring back memories.

The girls' volleyball team is preparing for the tournament.

ADVERTISING

The Staff wishes to thank the advertisers in this year's Citadel. In order to show our appreciation to them, every student or adult who reads this annual should take notice of the ad pages and patronize the businesses of these advertisers. For they are the ones who help make the publication of the Citadel possible.
